

WAKEFIELD TRINITY RLFC

HERITAGE NUMBERS ... The Story

Initial Ideas

Our initial ideas for the heritage numbers came about a couple of years ago (approx. 2012), after seeing the success of Queensland in Australia, with Warrington being the first English club to follow suit.

Next Step

Tremendous work had been carried out by a group of rugby league historians in the 1970s (RL Record Keepers' Club) who pooled their knowledge, and attempted to record every game in the first one hundred years of rugby league (1895-1994).

Trinity's were completed and fortunately we acquired the records to every Trinity game, and players, since 1895

The First 100 Years

The teams for the first one hundred years of Trinity's rugby league days (1895-1994) were recorded and each new player to make his debut noted. On the very first game there were fifteen (numbers 1-15) and each debutant after this was given the subsequent number, in position order (full back, winger, centre etc.). This was checked, double-checked and triple checked. By 1994 we had found 1,060 names.

The Next 20 Years ... Part 1

The next twenty years, to the modern day, were a little more difficult but we researched the Trinity playing records through the excellent 'Rothman's Year Books' written by the late Raymond Fletcher and David Howes. These books started in 1981 and finished in 1999. Again, each debutant was given the next heritage number

The Next 20 Years ... Part 2

After the 'Rothmans' books ceased publication we used the yearbooks published by 'League Express', which also noted every new player, signed throughout the season. By the end of 2013 we had found every Trinity player to have played first team rugby league

Re-checking

The next step was to re-check that all the names had been noted, none had been duplicated or any had been missed out. There had been various mistakes in the initial records from 1994, some that could not have been helped (spelling mistakes, brothers with the same name etc.)

Wakefield Library Archives

The next process was to make sure that the 'Record Keepers Club' records were correct. Regular visits to the Archives department at Wakefield Library saw us digest the old Wakefield newspapers, including the Wakefield Express and Wakefield & West Riding Herald that listed the weekly teams every Friday morning.

This also assisted us in finding Christian names for all players

Huddersfield University Archives

The above was then followed up with visits to Huddersfield University Archives department, which has a great rugby league collection. We researched the RFL's players records to confirm all the names that had been found

The Final Steps

Some of the 1990s yearbooks did not list the teams per game, only the names of debutants so further visits to the library finalised the order of all debutants over the last twenty years.

The process was complete by July 2013, and added to with each new debutant (complete to September 2015)

Trinity Publications

The Trinity programmes over the years have also been useful sources of information, especially the excellent 'Trinity Programme' of the 1960s, written by John Lindley and David Armitage.

Their subsequent books, 'The Dreadnoughts' (1960) and '100 Years of Rugby' (1973) have also been worn thin with constant reference

Heritage Numbers notes / criteria

Players are listed in debut order and allocated debut heritage numbers

Those making their debuts in the same match had their place determined by positions (full back, winger, centre etc.)

If players have made more than one debut (e.g.: Neil Fox, Ian Brooke, David Topliss, Gary Price, Danny Kirmond etc.), they retain their initial number for their second debut

Players listed as AN Other or Triallist have not been issued a number, unless they subsequently signed for the club

Only first class matches are included, not friendly matches. The years noted after each name signify their debut year to last game
